

Left Out

All of us can feel left out at times, grown-ups included.

Draw a time where you saw someone else being left out. Write about or explain to a trusted adult how you might include this person. How did it feel for them to be left out? How does it feel to include someone? How does it feel to be included?

